Art Unit:

Applicant's arguments filed 5/7/02 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

I. Rejection of claims 1-12,14-27 under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) over Wisotzki on record for reason on record and reason as follows.

Applicant argues that the instant composition / system does not contain Panthenol.

Examiner argues that instant claims use the language "comprising" which leaves instant claims open to the inclusion of other ingredients such as Panthenol.

II. Applicant argues that the instant invention requires (at page 2 line 25), a polymer having a water-vapor-transfer-rate of less than 10g-mm/m<sup>2</sup> day and a glass transition temperature greater than about 30 degree C and applicant states that this polymer is not taught by Wisotzki. Examiner directs applicant's attention to page 9 line 17 - page 10 line 8 of instant specification where applicant teaches vinyl polymers meet the above requirement regarding glass transition temperature. Note that Wisotzki teaches PVP which is a vinyl polymer. In addition, examiner reiterate that a statement to intended use in a composition claim does not make composition claim patentable.

IV. Objection to claims 13 and 28 will be maintained for reasons on record. The prior art does not make the instant composition comprising calcium ions obvious.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit:

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
